Form 990, Part I, Line 1 - Organization Mission or Significant Activities

Lacking access to healthcare and medical services, clinic clients are increasingly presenting with comorbidities of complicated and serious health issues, sometimes requiring immediate and urgent action. Comprehensive assessment and diagnoses (Early Detection, Aversion & Prevention assessment tools, point-of-care tests, and diagnostics), integrated clinic and collaborative treatments (physicians and nurses) and ongoing clinic supervision and coordination of care (Medical Assistants) is provided in lieu of nonemergent ER visits. Clinic being located within the shelter where clients live is the key to success (resolving, controlling, managing, averting, and preventing issues being addressed). The ultimate success/goal is unencumbered health issues that allow clients to get jobs, become self-sufficient and live a better quality of life.

Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Organization Mission

To remove health issues as barriers to self-sufficiency and upward mobility for homeless women, and as impediments to development and readiness to learn for homeless children, by providing free healthcare the is easily accessible. For adults, health issues can cause and will prolong homelessness, interrupting job searches and interviews and jeopardizing employment due to health-related absenteeism. For children, health issues can negatively impact development (physical, psychological, emotional, social, behavioral), preparation to enter school and performance in school. Ease of access is fostered by clinic location within the shelter where patients live, convenient hours of Monday through Friday, 8:30 to 5:00pm, all services are free (nursing and provider care, health assessment tests, screens and diagnostic labs, prescription/OTC medications, treatments, health information), prompt walk-in care on the first and subsequent visits, unlimited free

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts

Our conflict of interest policy is primarily self-monitored by each Board member and key employees. All Board members and key employees are made aware of the policy when recruited, with any existing conflicts resolved before processing further with Board review and approval. When approved as a Board member or key employee, they are reminded of the policy and requested to report any and all possible conflicts that may arise. If a conflict cannot be resolved, they are asked to withdraw their application as a Board member or employee, or resign. All possible conflict situations are reviewed by the Executive Committee and a Board member who is a lawyer, with recommendations made. The Executive Director is responsible for implementing the recommendation. Reminders of the policy are relayed periodically to Board members via email mentioned at Board meetings, and directly to Board Members by the Executive Director.
